“ Oh Barb. How I miss talking with you. Every day either a phone call or text. I cannot believe you're gone. Mike and I have talked about what all you have for us. Finding materials on Marketplace, if it was out there, you'd find it. And you were one hell of a negotiator. Never paying asking price for anything. You were truly a caring person with a big heart. I miss your laugh and your stories you told. You would have laughing in tears! Since it was your time, I'm glad you did not suffer. Rest In Peace my Sis. Love you. Love you more.

“ I’ve known Barbara and the Cline family, most of my life. I loved her like a sister. She faced things in life and came through a much stronger person. She was one of a kind. Smart, sassy & beautiful! Bonnie, Betty Mae, Billy, Bobby & especially Lance, she was a rare jewel. She’s finished the race on earth and will spend eternity in heaven with Jesus and her family. Her, Betsy and Betty are celebrating! Our community lost so much when Barb left that day, but she gained everything! I love you always Barb.
