“ I’m sorry for your loss Peggy, April, Dana, Randy and the other family and friends.
I spent a summer at North Central and Cecil and Peg welcomed me into their home. Their warm and caring friendship will ALWAYS be remembered and appreciated.

“ Cecil was one of a kind. It didn't matter where or when you saw him he was the same all the time. I met Cecil while working at the 4h camp in early 80s and him and the best time was when we did jobs for him in the afternoons.
