“ Stuff like this is not supposed to happen and so there’s really no words to say that will ease the pain and suffering of Chelsey’s family and friends.

I never got to know Chelsey because Susan and Ed left Knoxville to make Kentucky their home before that could happen. I can only say without a doubt the Durbin Family was and is some of the best people I have ever known and so I’m positive that Chelsey was a fun loving, caring and upbeat girl much like rest of the family that I knew..I loved (and still do) each of them and during this time my heart is heavy and breaking for them.. Susan, Ed,Heather and Eddie ( and other family members) please know that I am holding you close in my heart and am lifting you up to our Heavenly Father in prayer. The Bible calls him The Prince Of Peace and I know that he IS able to bring you through this tragedy. He sees your tears and know’s your pain..He will give you strength if you will lean on him. Rest easy Chelsey until you are reunited with a family that has lost a part of themselves ..because when you left you took a piece of each of their ♡♡ !

“ Chelsea was one of my favorite people and I loved her so much and I will miss her so much and I'm so lost and going through it. Me and her spent a lot of time together and yes we made some wrong decision but that's part of life and she was still one of my kids in my heart and I will love and miss her so much. I also want to send her family all the love and prayers I have in me and I want you all to know I would of killed over her in a heartbeat I have not slept in two days now and I know I have to be strong and be there for her family so please now I will be here for you all just let me know what I can do to help. I love you sis and fly high and I'll see you again one day God was blessed when he got you as one of his angels. Love you sis 🥹
