“ *i remember the sweet hugs he gave to me .
and at the last family get together .he was a sweetheart of a man*

“ Every Sunday without fail Ray was kind enough to call and check with us to make sure we were OK. He always made sure to notify the family when an illness struck one of its members. My saddest memory will always be that none of the Cadles called when Ray was the one in need. I will miss that weekly connection until it becomes my turn. Rest in Heavenly Comfort Ray.
