

Dana Marie Mathews

April 2, 1959 - March 23, 2025

Dana Marie Mathews 65 passed away March 23, 2025, at Meadowview Regional Hospital, Maysville, Ky. She was born in Marion, Ohio on April 2, 1959, to Lera Newman and the late James Corbitt.

She loved spending time with her grandson Ben, she was always a caregiver to all. She had the ability to be liked and loved by all. She enjoyed genealogy and documenting cemeteries. She was a great cook with many recipes passed down. She was a great mother and person to us; she was selfless and cared for others in lieu of herself.

She is survived by her son James Mathews, a grandson Benjamin Mathews, her mother Lera Newman, a brother Jim Corbitt and a sister Denise Corbitt. She was preceded in death by her husband Attlie Matthews, a son Timothy Skinner, a brother Todd Corbitt and her father James Corbitt. A celebration of life service will be announced later, Carlisle-Clark Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

IH

“ Dana was a wonderful person. She always kept a positive attitude no matter what was going on. I loved her so much. She loved her family with all her heart.

Isabelle Hale - March 31, 2025 at 10:32 AM

SC

“ I never actually met Dana, but through her brother Jim Corbitt I actually got to know the kind and generous person that she was and always will remain in many hearts, friends and family. Her positive outlook on life, her ability to laugh, and her unending love for her family Will always be remembered.

Susan Council - March 29, 2025 at 04:18 PM

TP

“ She made the best desserts at Christmas I'll never forget my brother bringing home homemade candy and cookies that she'd made

Trista Pelfrey - March 28, 2025 at 02:01 PM