

Donnie Lee Alsept

May 11, 1946 - May 30, 2025

Donnie Lee Alsept, 79, of Carlisle, gained his heavenly wings on May 30th, 2025, at the University of Kentucky Hospital.

Donnie was a spirited and beloved individual known for his carefree nature and knack for making people laugh. He is leaving behind a legacy of joy and cherished memories.

Born to the late Abner Jay Alsept and Mary Dell Goodpaster Alsept, Donnie lived a life rich in experiences and connections. Though not formally educated, he possessed a vast well of practical knowledge and an uncanny ability to fix anything. He never met a stranger, and his warm, approachable demeanor instantly put others at ease.

Donnie found immense pleasure in the simple things: the thrill of going to auctions, where he loved collecting and selling antiques, and the joy of dancing. He also loved to go "loafing around," embracing a relaxed approach to life. Above all, he deeply loved his family. He was hard on the ones he wanted to see succeed and always made a point to let them know what he felt was best for them. What he did, he did in love, the way he knew how to love.

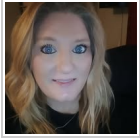

Donnie was preceded in death by his brothers, James Alsept, Henry Alsept, Paul Alsept, and Roy Alsept, and his sister, Louise Alsept Payne. He is survived by his brother, Vernon Alsept of Olympia, KY. Donnie's memory will be forever cherished by his three children: Jason Scott Herrington of Carlisle, KY, Jessica Nicole Hunt of Carlisle, KY, and Jennifer Leigh Taylor of Lexington, KY. He also leaves behind 10 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren, all of whom brought immense joy to his life.

Donnie's laughter, his love of joking, and his zest for life will be profoundly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Donnie's wishes were to be cremated and buried in the Bath County Cemetery with his mother and father. Services will be held at a later date for family and close friends. In lieu of flowers or gifts, the family has requested that any donations be given to Carlisle-Clark Funeral Home for cremation and burial services be rendered. Carlisle-Clark Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
