March 19, 1939 - January 23, 2023

Jackie Woodrow Randolph, 83, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his loving family on January 23, 2023, after a brief illness. He was born March 18, 1939, in Carlisle, to Gertrude Sosby and Walter Woodrow Randolph, who preceded him in death. He was also preceded in death by a son, Joe David Randolph and his dog, Heavy.

Left to cherish his memory and legacy are his wife of 63 years, Carolyn Gilvin Randolph, Jeff (Pam) Randolph, Ramona (Gary) Eubanks, three granddaughters: Kelsey (Tyler Roe), Larkyn, and Macey Randolph, two loving dogs, Millie and Zola, and several relatives and friends.

He served in the US Army as Private First-Class Military Police from 1956 to 1959. Upon returning home, he worked in construction and then became a local entrepreneur. Over the course of several years, he owned and operated several businesses including Rudy's Liquor Store, Randolph Ready Mix, Randolph Truck Sales, Randolph Backhoe and Bulldozing, Moorefield Grocery and Post Office, Triple J Tree Service, and R & R Repair shop. Jack owned several buildings in Carlisle that house businesses currently in operation. He was a former member of the Fiscal Court serving as magistrate in Nicholas County and was a lifetime member of the VFW and the American Legion.

He enjoyed spending the winter months in Florida going to yard sales and auctions with his wife, Carolyn, summers at home by the pool with his granddaughters, sitting on the carport with his dogs, and Friday night fish suppers.
