“ I had the privilege of sharing a few words at Jimmies funeral and wanted to thank Jimmie and the family for allowing me to do so. This was one of a kind person. He was the best not only to me Richard but to everyone that knew him. I am a better person today by knowing and loving him. Thank you God and I love every one of you the family for allowing me to be there with you.

“ There are no words my sweet Daddy that could ever fill this void. You were my strength and hero on so many ways. I promise I will forever fill your wishes and make you proud. I will share and honor your memory for as long as I live. Rest now and bast in the happiness with my momma and sister. I'll-imu always.
