“ I remember when Marilyn worked at Neal's Square Deal as check out clerk. I loved to shop there so I could to talk to Marilyn as I checked out, She always had that smile on her face. She was such a delight to know, and was a dear friend! Frankie and boys, my sympathy with you. And to Maily'n's sisters.

“ Marilyn and I shared our childhood together in Flemingsburg. My fondest memory is that of going with her to her father's bakery after school and going to the back for a sweet treat. Such an array on the many tall shelves of rolls, doughnuts and cookies and, Heaven forbid, that we should forget the Salt Rising Bread! Marilyn always had a ready, sweet smile and I can still hear the sound of her warm hello for everyone. In the last few years, we have greatly missed her at our class reunions. My sincere sympathy goes out to Frankie, her children and grandchildren. Ann Stockton Bower Stivers
